OFFICER'S STATUS REPORTS: PRESIDIO--AGRIS TAURINS--
GENERAL MANAGER--JOYCE YONKEY--

During the month of September, my time has been spent working on two main projects. The first project was arranging for our booth at the flea market. Although this did not turn out to be as profitable monetarily as we had hoped, I think we did gain some valuable experience working together as a club, since this was the first opportunity for some of us to take part in a club project. I also think we can apply much of this experience to future club endeavors.

The second project was that of the membership cards. The necessary initial decisions were made by the Andromedan Council and action is ready to be taken. I have the set up the master for the informational side of the cards and they are waiting to be printed.

Another item I have accomplished was contacting the Sunday Journal and Star regarding changing the meeting time and place as listed in the "Hobby Time" column.

My current project (aside from membership cards) involves straightening out membership data. I have received a partial membership roster and will be attempting to fill in missing information regarding membership dates, etc., so we can get back on track at least as far as fees are concerned.
